

Baby abandoned

SECUNDA - A new born baby boy was recently found abandoned at Extention 14 in eMbalenhle.

The baby was found wrapped in an old blanket and his umbilical cord clipped with two pegs.

The local police said the baby was left on a toilet floor.

The baby is currently at the Evander Provincial Hospital for care and medical treatment.

The police are appealing to the community who may have information on the whereabouts of the baby's mother, to please come forward.

W/O Nathaniel Sondlane is the investigating officer and can be contacted at 017 624 2203 or at 072 638 1599.