

North West University in goal fest

MAHLATSE MPHAHLELE

NORTH West University climbed to the top of the Varsity Cup football table after a ruthless 6-0 hammering of bottom-of-the-log University of Cape Town on Monday.

In what turned out to be a one-sided affair in Mafikeng, NWU easily disposed of Ikeys, who are yet to win a match this season after four matches.

NWU striker Tshemolo Machawisa stole the show with a well-deserved hat-trick.

NWU got off to a dream start when Thatohatsi Santos finished a well-taken cross by Orebotse Mongae to beat UCT goalkeeper David Frankel as early as the second minute.

With the floodgates open,

Frankel was beaten five minutes later as Machwisa registered the first of his three goals.

NWU went to the break leading 3-0 as Machiswa, who was scintillating in front of goal, scored his second of the match after he was set up by Mongae.

NWU continued their goal blitz in the second half as Matsobane Matsi scored the fourth.

mahlatsen@thenewage.co.za