MEC explores Israel agriculture links

EASTERN Cape rural development and agrarian reform MEC Mlibo Qoboshiyane met with Arthur Lenk, Israel's ambassador to South Africa, yesterday afternoon to discuss possible agriculture development partnerships between the province and Israel. Their meeting preceded the Agriculture Business Seminar at the Regent Hotel in East London this morning. They discussed current agriculture and rural development programmes of the department, similar programmes of the government of Israel, challenges faced by both and possible partnerships. – Buyekezwa Makwabe
