African Utility Week
15-17 May 2018

The 18th annual African Utility Week is a conference and trade exhibition for African power, energy and water professionals, focusing on all aspects of the provision of energy services to the African market.

The event brings together over 7 000 decision-makers to source the latest solutions and meet over 300 suppliers.

With 300 expert speakers, the conference programme will address the latest challenges, developments and opportunities in the power and water sectors.

The strategic water conference will showcase how partnerships, financial models and latest technological advances can make the greatest impact in meeting Africa's water demand.

The event takes place at the Cape Town International Convention Centre from 15-17 May 2018.
