

Publication
WEEKEND ARGUS - SATURDAY
EDITION

Page	Date	AVE (ZAR)
8	Sat 12 May 2018	7083.59

ON BRIEF

Waste tyre recycle ideas requested

ENVIRONMENTAL Affairs Minister Edna Molewa is considering four industry waste tyre management proposals to deal with the threat of indiscriminate disposal.

"The broad policy direction is to reduce the environmental externalities associated with waste tyres by diverting waste tyres away from landfill and maximising the value extracted from waste tyres as a resource by encouraging reuse, recycling and waste to energy," Molewa said. – African News Agency (ANA)

Solidarity pushes for SAA rescue

TRADE union Solidarity says it is pressing ahead with its court application to have the financially distressed SAA placed under business rescue.

This follows the government announcement that SAA will receive a further capital injection of R5 billion.

It said the R5bn boost confirmed SAA was not a going concern. "At best, this step is a short-term one," it said. – ANA

Indian energy firms entice SA business

THE African Utility Week conference in Cape Town will include a pavilion with more than 45 Indian companies that supply technology and services for the energy sector.

The conference at the Cape Town International Convention Centre is set to be attended by more than 7 000 delegates from more than 80 countries who will discuss the power, energy and water sectors. – African News Agency (ANA)

Call to end game encounters

WITH at least 28 injured people and 12 deaths in South Africa, the "time has clearly come" for legislation to end all public interactions with carnivores, a group of conservation organisations said in an open letter to Minister of Environmental Affairs Edna Molewa yesterday. Last weekend, Michael Hodge was mauled by a 10-year-old lion he had hand-reared from birth at the Marakele Predator Park in the Thabazini area. – Weekend Argus Reporter

Black Coffee moves on to DJ at Sonar

DJ Black Coffee appears to have put the Israel debacle behind him and has instead set his sights on the 25th edition of Sonar, Barcelona's festival of advanced music and digital art.

Last month, Black Coffee was on the receiving end of criticism from social media users after he shared a video of his "sold out" show in Tel Aviv in Israel. – African News Agency (ANA)